DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 42 and 43 are objected to because of the following informalities: The above claims are dependent from a cancelled claim (i.e. claim 1). The examiner deems this to be a typographical error and will treat them as being dependent from claim 41 since that is the claim they appeared to be dependent from. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 42 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The angularly offset limitation of claim 42 appears to be new matter since the examiner cannot locate any reference to this in the specification. The applicant refers the examiner to figure 6 and page 18, line 21 through page 19, line 19 of the specification, however, there is no mention of an offset angle contained therein. It is also not readily apparent how any such limitation can be obtained therefrom.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 41 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Woodard et al (4943140).

Woodard et al disclose an automobile transparency comprising a pair of glass sheets (48,50) and an interlayer (14,24) having a constant thickness in a first area (12) and a varying thickness in a second area (22), note figures 1 and 2, wherein the outer major surfaces in the first area is parallel and the outer major surfaces of the transparency in said second area would inherently be non-parallel due to the wedge shaped profile of the interlayer.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1772

7. Claim 42 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Woodard et al.

Woodard et al teaches the invention substantially as recited except for the specific offset angle.

However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to Woodard et al to vary the angle as specified in claim 42, since it is already disclosed to vary the angle and a mere change in shape and/or size is considered as within ordinary skill in the art. See MPEP section 2144.04 IV.

Double Patenting

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claims 41-43 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 6-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6636370. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both contain a laminated windshield that contains a constant thickness portion and a parallel section.
